What are the main landscape features in the UK?

The main mountains in the UK are in the north and west. The flattest land is in the east. There are low hills in central and southern parts. What can you tell from the map about your own area?

