Why do Christian's call the day Jesus died 'Good Friday'

L.O. To understand what the texts about Jesus' journey into Jerusalem and his death and resurrection might mean,
Part two

What do you notice about these crosses?

Can you match each of the crosses to each of the aspects of Holy Week? (choose from the day Jesus rose again, Jesus's arrival in Jerusalem and the day Jesus died).

This is a palm cross, skilfully made by folding a palm leaf. This represents  the palms that were waved and placed on the floor for Jesus as he entered Jerusalem. The cross is waved in victory and kept in homes as a daily reminder of the Victory of Christ.

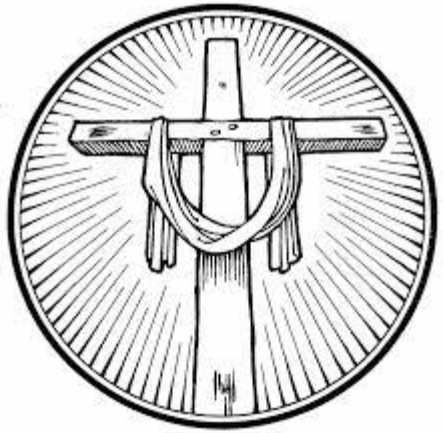

This is a crucifix, a symbol of the Christian religion. It consists of a Christian cross, against which is nailed a figurine representing Jesus. It represents Christ's sacrifice—his death by crucifixion.

This is a cross, it reminds us of Jesus' victory over sin and death, since it is believed that through His death and resurrection He conquered death itself.

Watch the two clips above to remind yourself of the order of events in the Easter story.

Please think carefully about how you think Mary might be feeling watching what was happening to her son.

Your task

Your task is to write 2 diary entries in the role of Mary.
One for Good Friday and the other for Easter Sunday.
Each piece should include a picture of the appropriate cross.
In her diary Mary could explain why she has included that cross, what has happened on that day, how she feels, and what she thinks the day might mean.
