
Planning Instructions twinkl
twinkl
Quality Standard Approved

Aim

- I can use a range of discussion and recording methods.

Success Criteria

- I can find features of instructions.
- I can plan some instructions.
- I can use a good example to make my introduction better.

twinkl.com

Instructions Features

Heading, introductory sentence, steps in chronological order, bullet points or numbered steps, concluding sentence, conjunctions and prepositions to show time.

sub-heading heading

imperative (bossy) verbs

~~name and address~~

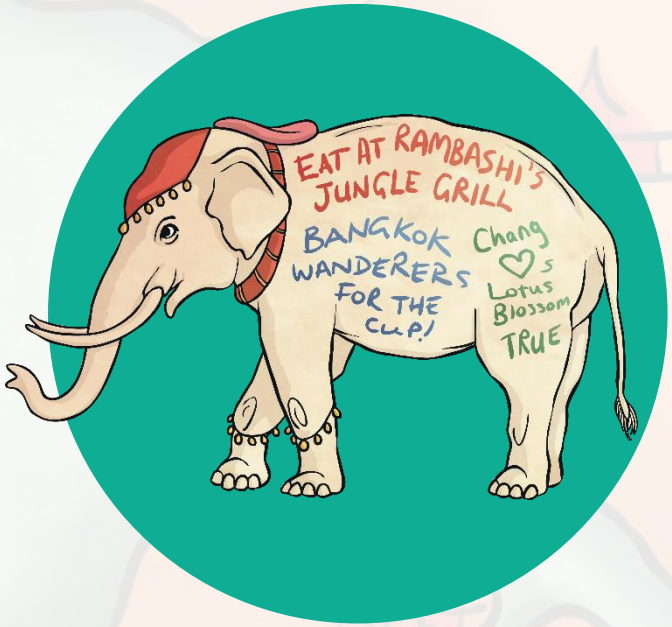

adverbs to show time

~~a happy ending~~

twinkl.com

How to Wash an Elephant

Hamlet is covered in graffiti. He desperately needs a wash.

How do you wash an elephant?

With your partner, discuss equipment that may be needed and basic steps to follow.

What do you think is the biggest challenge for washing an elephant?

How might an elephant be able to help with the washing process?

twinkl.com

Introduction Development

Now you have some idea about how to complete this almighty elephant-tastic task, let's work on your introductions on whiteboards.

Look at this good example of an instructions introduction.

Use the sentence you have planned and add to it to entertain your reader. Can you include a rhetorical question to draw your reader in?

Have you got a dog who is always rolling in mud? Dogs need to be kept clean or they can often become unhealthy and smelly. Use this handy set of instructions to ensure you keep your pet squeaky clean.

twinkl.com

Aim

- I can use a range of discussion and recording methods.

Success Criteria

- I can find features of instructions.
- I can plan some instructions.
- I can use a good example to make my introduction better.

twinkl.com

twinkl
twinkl
Quality Standard
Approved