What colours do you think should be worn at a funeral and why?

How might the prayers and songs reflect the beliefs of the family?

What is the best way for a funeral to balance sadness at the loss, and joy at the celebration of a person's life?

Is a funeral for the person who died or for the bereaved?

Do you think a funeral is a memorial, a celebration or a time of sadness?

What does Christian hope of heaven add to this? Which emotions might a Christian feel at a funeral and why?