Autobiography Planner

Title
Introduction: An attention-grabbing introduction to make the audience want to read on.
Life events in chronological order: Written in past tense. You might include: the names of individuals and places; dates for specific events; early memories and influences; beliefs and values; emotions and opinions; achievements.	Paragraph 1 Paragraph 2 Paragraph 3 Paragraph 4
Closing statement: written in present or perfect tense. You might include: reflections on key events; comments on your life now; your hopes for the future.	