Classification Keys

Classification keys

A key is a set of questions about the characteristics of living things. You can use a key to identify a living thing or decide which group it belongs to by answering the questions.

Alien Decoder

