ALFIE'S COVID 19 WRITING...

There is currently a virus called Covid 19 aka the Corona, it is a very contagious, it has spread around the world within 4 months.
This virus is thought to come from bats, and from people in China eating eating them it has spread to humans.

Covid 19 is very deadly to people with underlining health issues. Most healthy people have mild simptoms which are... sore throat, temperature, continous cough and a dry nose. They are also other simptoms like diffuculty breathing, aches and and poo paines and getting ge having the glue.

Our country is currently on lockdown, were only allowed to leave our homes ~~to~~ once every day, when we go out we have to stay atleast 2 metre's away from anyone that's not in our family, this is to stop the virus spreading from spreading.
The only places that are open is... essential, good shops and pet stores so you can get food for pets.

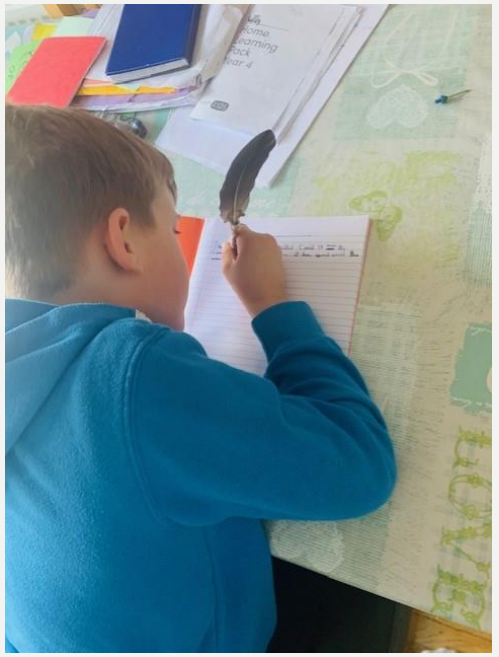

We are no longer able to attend school, but we do have work to do at home in. Not being able to see my friends either family is absolutely horrible, ~~as~~ especially because my Daddy had to go to work until all this is over.

Me, mummy, and Tommy, are at home / mummy bought me and Tommy a basketball hoop so were not bored.
Me and mum Tom have been outside shooting some hoops.
In our garden we also have a rectangular trampoline.
Luckily I have a phone so I can call all my friends and family, I can also facetime my daddy.

P.S. I hope you all my hard writing my mummy bought me a feather quill ink dip pen.

ABBIE'S ALLITERATIVE POEM…

Outside during lockdown 2020

I can hear…

The crows cooing, blossom blooming great green grass swaying in the breeze, luscious lemon lollies greedily being eaten next door, comfortable clouds that I can see, green leaves rustling underneath the trees ,trees swaying in the breeze, car engines roaring as they passing by, buzzy bees collecting nectar to make into honey.

Andriy Yarmelenko is a striker for West Ham United. He wears number seven. Have you ever wanted to know more about him? Well, read on to find out some amazing facts and stats!

Andriy was born in St Petersburg, Russia on the 23rd of October 1989. He is Ukrainian because he only lived in Russia for a short time before his whole family moved back to the Ukraine. In 2011 he married Inna and has two sons called Ivan and Danylo.

As a teenager, he played for Desna Chernihiv. He moved to Dynamo Kiev at the age of 13 but couldn't handle their training so moved back to Desna. He rejoined, Dynamo Kiev at the age of 17 and made his debut on the 11th of May 2008, aged 19. On the 28th of August, he left Dynamo Kiev and joined Borussia Dortmund but only played 18 games before moving to West Ham on the 11th of July.

His first and second goals for West Ham were scored at Goodison Park, the home of Everton in a 3-1 win!! Unfortunately, he suffered an achillies tear in September 2018 and was unable to play for almost a year. In his first game after recovering from his injury, he scored a left footed volley in a 2-0 win over Norwich City. Currently, Andriy is injured again but hopefully recovering well.

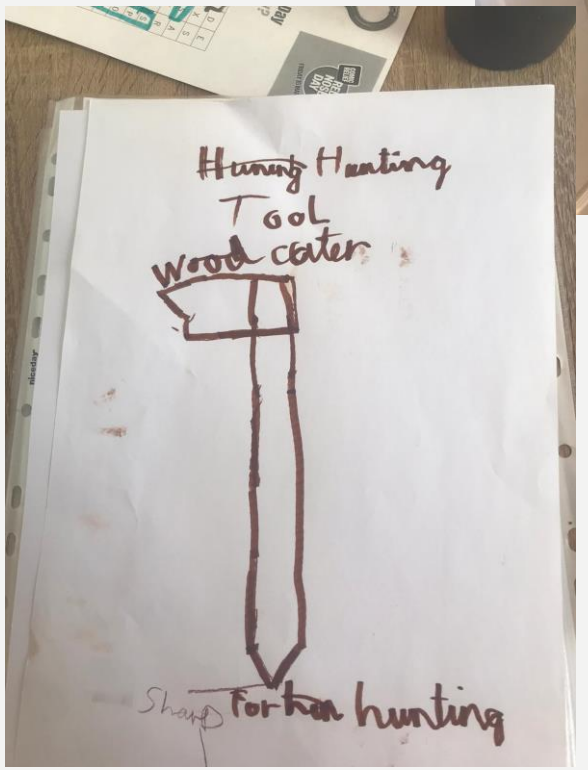

Andriy made his debut for the Ukraine national side in 2009 so far he has made 86 appearances and has scored 37 goals. He is a vital part of the Ukraine national team so it is very annoying when he gets an injury.

Stone Age Time Periods

The pre-historic period known as the Stone Age, which is said to have lasted for over three million years, was named because of the stone tools and equipment used at the time. The Stone Age is divided into three phases, although the exact dates for each section vary across the world.

During the Old Stone Age, known as the Palaeolithic era, the earliest relatives of humans, homo habilis, used simple stone tools and Britain was still connected by land to modern-day France and Denmark.

In the Mesolithic period (Middle Stone Age), the more developed humans lived hunter-gatherer lifestyles, constantly on the move in order to survive. At this point, Britain became an island.

During the New Stone Age (Neolithic period), farming began, pottery was developed and villages were built.

She was watching it for a long time and then her mum said "Right it's time for lunch." When Zoe took her lunch out the lemur had chewed a hole right through the gates then when noone was looking ~~the~~ it went through the hole and climbed into Zoes' backpack! She noticed but didn't tell anyone because she really liked him.

When they went home Zoe went upstairs and brought her backpack with her inter her bedroom. As she opened her ~~pack~~ back back pack the little lemur scamperd out of it and Zoe decided to call him Meep. He started to investigate Zoe's bedroom with great delight. A few moments later her scampered into Zoes' welcoming arms.
Back at the zoo the zoo keepers didn't notice Meep was gone until night time. They started to panic soon they ~~decide~~ decided to call the police; it was all over the news.

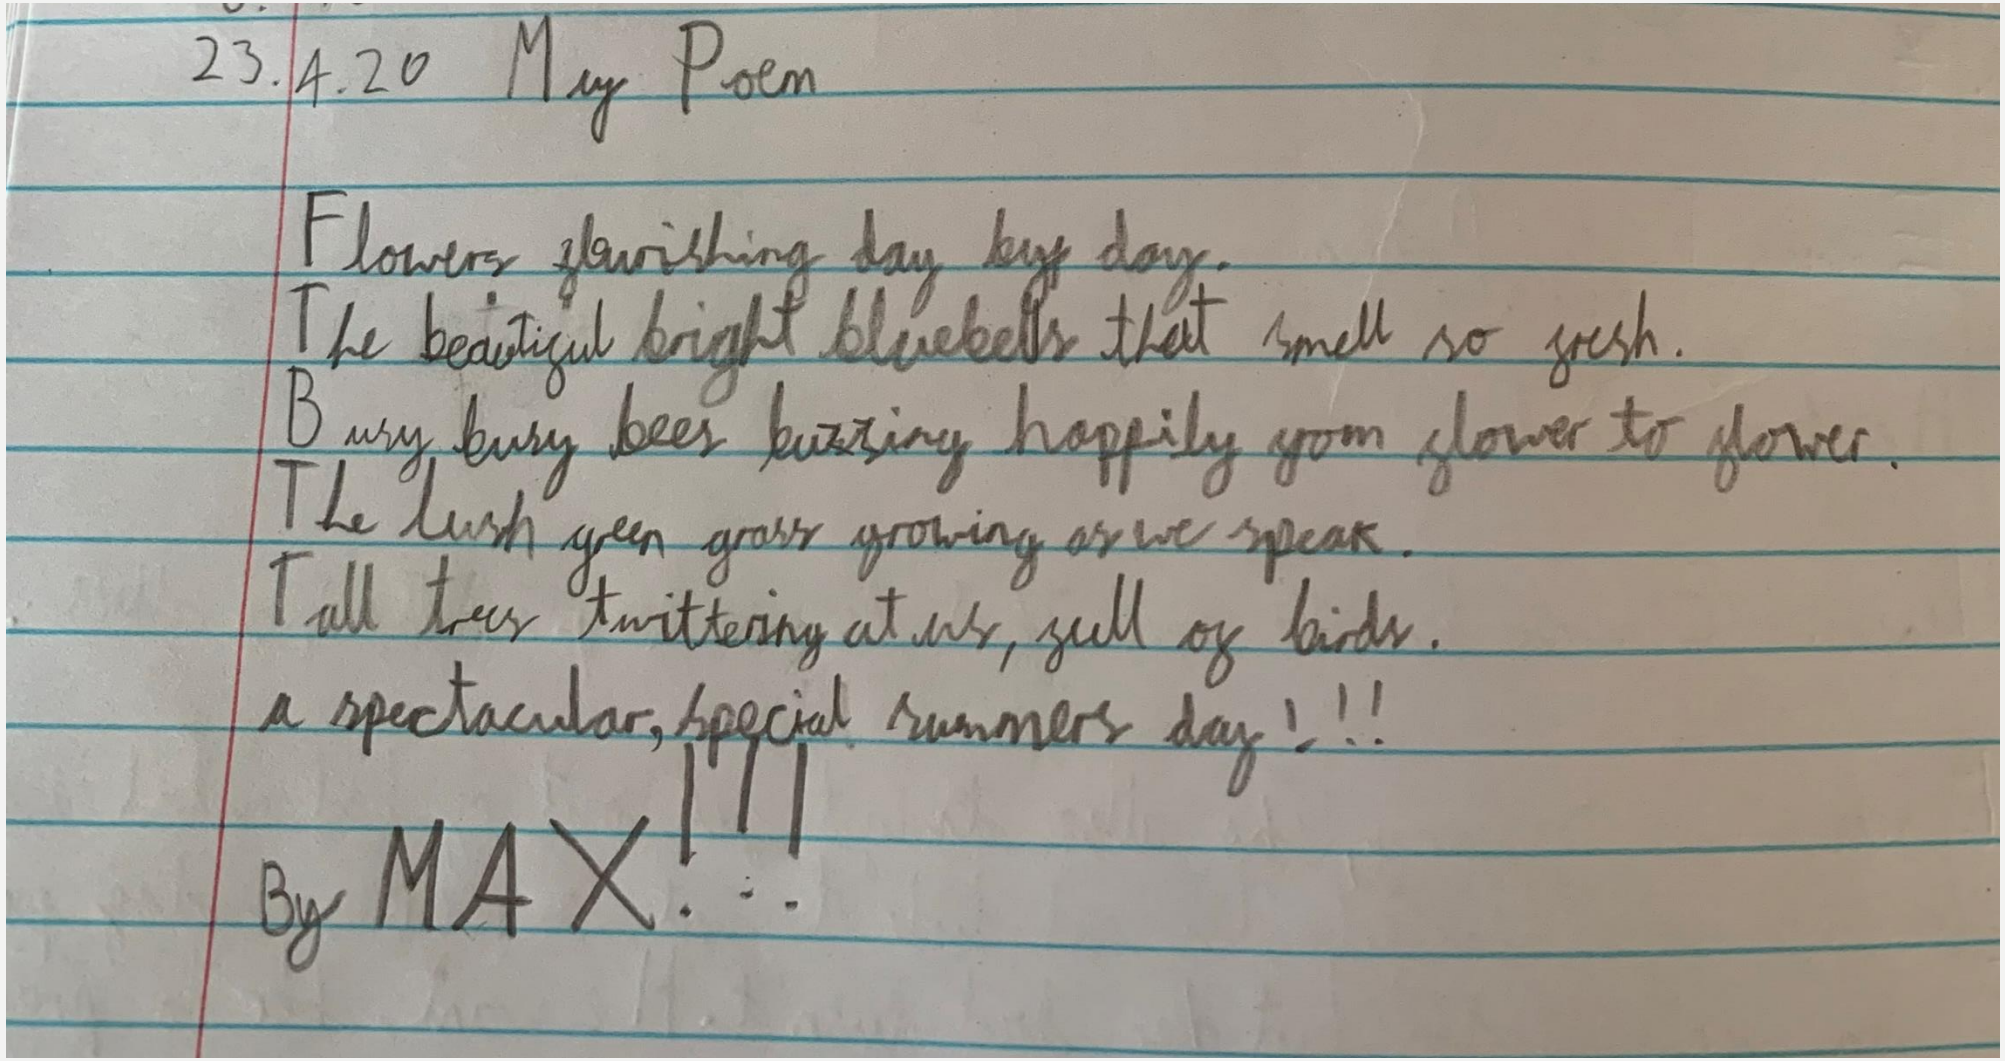

Zoes' parents were watching the news downstairs. Zoe and Meep were having such a good time together they forgot to be quiet. Soon Zoes' Mum and Dad heard them so they went upstairs and saw Meep and Zoe ~~togeth~~ together! Mum and Dad decided they had to call the zoo. The zoo keepers decided Meep had to go back to the zoo. Zoe felt devastated.
