Emma's Puppy Problem

As soon as she turned eight years old, Emma knew that she was old enough for the responsibility of looking after a puppy. She had even promised to start doing all of the things you would do with a dog to prove to her boring dad that she could. Emma knew she had to go on long walks twice a day, although she did not get out of bed before midday. She watered the plants in the house every day to prove that she could keep something alive, although she watered them a bit too much. Emma also knew one thing for certain: she would not be picking up anything that the dog left in the back garden. Not once. Not ever. That was her dad's job.

Quick Questions

1. Who is stopping Emma from getting a puppy?

2. Why do you think that the author describes dad as 'boring'?

3. What makes you think that Emma is not ready to get a puppy? Use evidence from the text.

4. Summarise the main point of this story in 20 words or less.

Answers

1. Who is stopping Emma from getting a puppy?
   Dad

2. Why do you think that the author describes dad as 'boring'?
   Accept any reasonable explanation regarding Emma viewing dad as boring because he will not let her get a dog.

3. What makes you think that Emma is not ready to get a puppy? Use evidence from the text.
   Accept answers which quote the text and discuss that Emma does not do the necessary things to look after the dog and she does not even have one yet. She will not be a responsible owner because she refuses to do the jobs of a pet owner.

4. Summarise the main point of this story in 20 words or less.
   Accept any reasonable summary in 20 words or less which states that Emma wants a puppy but cannot have one.
