Introduction Hello I am a Miacat and our family are all miacats as well. We live in a big group and do everything together. Our fruit means everything to us. The Vulture is our biggest predator and tryes to steal our fruit.

Build Up One day we where examining and plating our fruit and we heard a deafening "Squeak" and the vulture came sweeping down.

Problem Sadly/worryingly The Vulture spread out his claws and stole the fruit. That meant war. We all made a miacat ladder and tryed to stop the Vulture and he lifted us of the ground.

Resolution Almost instanly/After we fell off the vulture but he still had the fruit! All the vulture didn't realise was a stone wall in front of him and he bashed into it. The vulture let go of the fruit. Amazingly (I caught it) it was caught by.....

Characters Miacat family, Vulture. ugly as a warthog, ugly on the inside - mean - old - enemy fluffy sheep, cute, happy kind, humerous.

Ending We played rugby with the fruit. I kicked it over the tree post. They all cheered but the fruit got squashed by landing on the ground. Everyone was shocked.
