Story Mountain

Settings
African - savannah
Sunrise - The fingers of sun light 'travel' across the sleepy land.
Birds calling / the world awakens, slowly.

Problem The Vulture - our enemy has stolen our prize possession!
We chase - dangle like a kite.
land like a motorcycle display team on his broad feathery back.
We are catapulted into the air.

Characters
Meercats. 1st person.
I am quick thinking synchronised with my family, brave, rugby loving, enjoy game playing.

Build Up One day.
looking at the precious fruit dangling tantilisingly.
Dark shadow glides like silent death across the sky. We scatter and hide in the rocks and burrows that are our homes.

Resolution
We steal the fruit - throw and catch it like the England rugby team.
Finally we land safely back to earth - the vulture flies into a rock! We pass the fruit between us - victorious - !

Introduction
Wake up - go outside -
Stare longingly, lovingly, protectively at the fruit.
~~The~~ Awaiting the juicy richness to descend from the spindly arms / embrace of the tree.

Ending
I receive the fruit - the precious parcel! I sprint towards the trees which form an inviting 'H' in the distance. Before I can stop and think I lift the ball - drop it onto my foot and watch it sail thrugh the H!!!!
