Thank you letter

This is an unusual time when most people have been asked to stay at home in order to keep themselves and others healthy.

There are lots of people still going to work to help the community in different ways. These are called 'key workers'.

Some of these jobs include:

- Supermarket workers
- Hospital workers
- Cleaners
- Transport drivers
- Police officers
- Fire fighters
- Teachers

Do you know anyone working in one of these jobs?

We want to join together to say a big 'thank you' to all the key workers who are helping to keep others safe and healthy. One way to do this is to write a thank you letter. Can you help by writing your own thank you letter?

How to get started:

- Choose one of the jobs from the list of 'key workers'
- Think of one reason why what they do is important
- Think of something you would like to try or know about their job
- Think of something that will make the reader smile (a picture, a joke, a funny fact)

© National Literacy Trust 2020
T: 020 7587 1842 W: literacytrust.org.uk Twitter: @Literacy_Trust Facebook: nationalliteracytrust

The National Literacy Trust is a registered charity no. 1116260 and a company limited by guarantee no. 5836486 registered in England and Wales and a registered charity in Scotland no. SC042944. Registered address: 68 South Lambeth Road, London SW8 1RL.

Dear _____ ,

My name is _____ . I am _____ years old.

I am writing to you to say _____

_____.

The work you are doing is very important because _____

_____ .

I think the best part of your job must be _____ .

Here is a question I wanted to ask you about your work: _____

_____ ?

This must be a difficult and busy time for you so here is something that I hope will make you smile:

From,

_____

© National Literacy Trust 2020