Year Five

	Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5	Week 6	Week 7	Week 8	Week 9	Week 10	Week 11	Week 12
Autumn	Why do I punctuate different sentence types? What do I use pronouns for?	When do I use the different determiners?	How do I identify and compose noun phrases?	How do I identify different verb types?	How do I describe time, place, frequency and manner through adverbials? Assessment of word classes.		Why do I demarcate fronted adverbials?	How do I identify prepositional phrases of time and place?	Why do I use subordinating conjunctions to join clauses?	What is a relative pronoun and clause?	How can I recognise different phrases and clauses?	Why do I use coordinating conjunctions to connect ideas? Assessment
Spring	How can I use reference chains and pronouns to avoid repetition within paragraphs?	How do I accurately use contractions?	When and how is the possession apostrophe used?	How does direct speech compare to reported speech?	What is parenthesis?	Why do I use commas to avoid ambiguity? Assessment of punctuation.	How do the spellings of verbs change when writing in the past?	Why should I use present and future tense consistently?	How do I recognise the tense of progressive verb forms?	How do I recognise and use the perfect form of verb?	How do I avoid repetition of verbs? Assessment	Consolidation
Summer	How can I compose simple, compound and complex sentences?	How do I use morphology to identify root words and meaning?	How do prefixes alter events?	How can I use a suffix to convert nouns or adjectives to verbs?	How do I identify the common meaning from word families? Assessment	Can I recognise multiple determiners in a sentence?	Can I identify modal verbs for certainty and possibility?	Why do I use relative clauses?	How do I select my punctuation for parenthesis?	When and why do I use commas?	Yearly assessment	Consolidation.
	Spellings			Punctuation			Word classes			Structure and sequencing		