Anti-Bullying Alliance

Is this bullying?

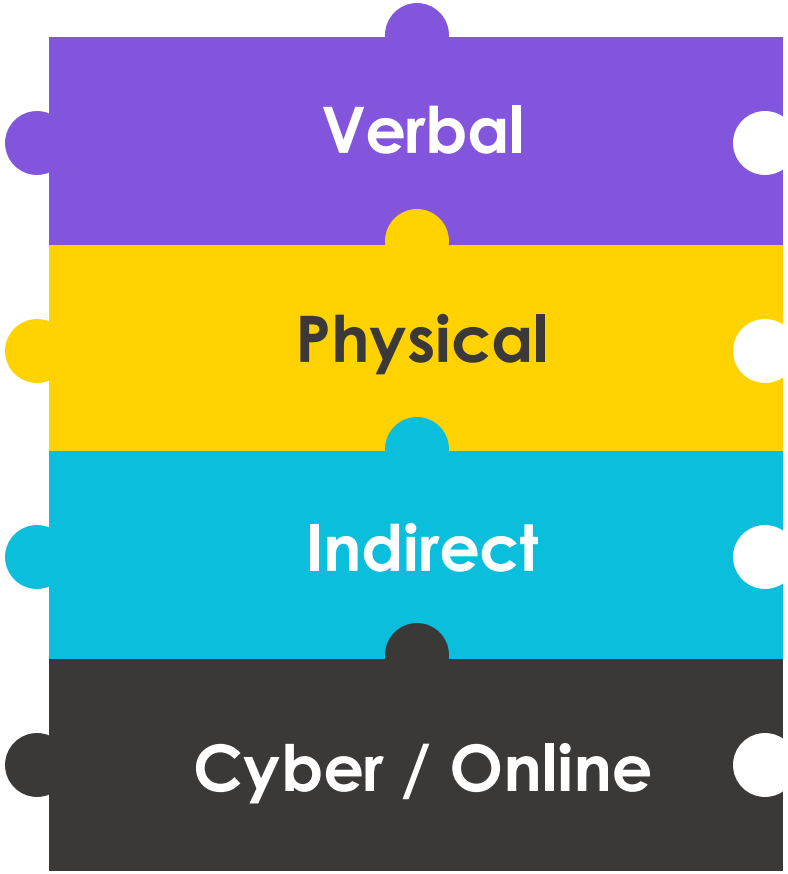

The ABA (Anti-Bullying Alliance) defines bullying as:

The repetitive, intentional hurting of one person or group by another person or group, where the relationship involves an imbalance of power.

Bullying can be physical, verbal or psychological.

It can happen face-to-face or online.

Types of bullying

name calling, calling people unkind names, verbal threats of violence hitting, kicking, biting, pushing, tripping you up – anything that hurts you by touching you isolating someone, leaving them out, spreading rumours, threatening looks social networking pictures, Whatsaap groups to encourage bullying, nasty text messages, filming people without permission, prank calls

Definition of ‘united’
