Charlotte's Web

Guided Reading Questions and Activities Answers

Chapter 19 and 20

(AF2) How does Charlotte describe her egg sac?
Charlotte describes her egg sac as 'the finest thing' she has ever made.

(AF3) Why does Charlotte's voice sound sad when she tells Wilbur her children 'won't show up till next spring'?
Charlotte's voice sounds sad because she knows that she will not live long enough to see her children when they show up next spring.

(AF4) Are there any clues in this section about the ending?
Pupil's own response.

(AF5) What does 'languishing' mean?
Pupil's own thoughts. Languishing means growing older, weakening or flagging.

(AF6) Can you describe the events from Charlotte's point of view?
Pupil's own response.

(AF7) Do you think the ending is going to be happy or sad, and why?
Pupil's own response.